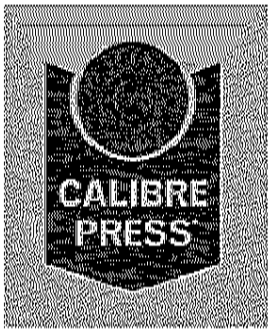
FEMALE ENFORCERS

Advanced mental, physical, and tactical skills to survive



HOST:
Sandy City Police Department

LOCATION:
Sandy City Police Department
10000 S. Centennial Pkwy, Sandy, UT 84070

DATE:
March 3, 2020 • 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Female Enforcers addresses the reality of working as a woman in law enforcement. The seminar aims to enhance the proficiency of female crime fighters mentally, physically, and tactically.

Far too often, women are pressed into a male-focused mold of work and training in this profession. Female Enforcers addresses this issue head-on, preparing female leaders to take the helm.

Course topics include:

- Battling bias and misperceptions
- Obstacles to tactical training and equipment issues
- Use of force: options and differences
- Physical and emotional health
- Current events and their cultural impact
- The history of women in police work
- Managing a male-dominated culture
- Discussing and examining female officer case studies
- The importance of leadership and mentoring among female officers
