A recent survey found Utah law enforcement chief executives are seeking professional leadership development opportunities for their middle and command-level officers. In a collaborative effort, Salt Lake Community College (SLCC), Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST), and the Utah Peace Officers Association (UPOA) have developed CJ 2020, a command-level college course, which is timely, relevant, and cost effective.

Timely Topics:

- Leadership Theories
- Qualities of Effective Leadership
- Values
- Interpersonal Relationships
- Performance Evaluations vs. Reviews
- Officer Wellness
- Moral, Ethical, and Effective Leadership
- Contemporary American Policing Problems
 - Race Relations and Implicit Bias
 - Community Outreach
 - Procedural Justice
 - Considering Use of Force

Fall Course Begins August 25th
