National Domestic Communications Assistance Center and NW3C present

The Internet: Investigations and Intelligence
(Delivered Virtually)

A two-day course focused on collecting Internet-related evidence and criminal intelligence information.  Topics will include OSINT collection tools, metadata, device geolocation, interacting with and serving legal process on electronic service providers, proxies, VPNs, and the Darknet.
* Course contains graphic content including profanity, and sexual and violent images *

May 9-10, 2024
8:00am - 4:30pm MDT

POC: Walter O'Neal
wwoneal@fbi.gov/(540) 361-4629

Registration

⇒ This course is FREE to attend, but you must be an NDCAC client.

⇒ Registration is completed through the NDCAC LE Portal.  To obtain NDCAC LE Portal access, visit www.cjis.gov.  For additional information on becoming an NDCAC client, see attached document.

⇒ Registration closes by April 24, 2024 (subject to change).  Registration does not guarantee enrollment.  You will be notified of enrollment status by April 25, 2024.

Questions: email askNDCAC@fbi.gov or call 855-306-3222