

Building Trust with the LGBTQ+ Community

Hosted by University of Utah Police Department

Location: University of Utah Police Department

1658 East 500 South

Salt Lake City, UT 84115

Date: April 18, 2024

Time: 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm Mountain Time

Join the University of Utah Police Department for the four-hour Building Trust with the LGBTQ+ Community training. This course will examine how campus police and public safety can more effectively build partnerships on their campuses and work with the LGBTQ+ community to create a safe and secure environment for all students, faculty, staff, and visitors. This interactive training will focus on the history of police-community interactions, defining common terminology, the state of current police-community relationships, and building partnerships with the community.
